Responding to your oral and informal question as to whether or not air charter travel by  from his place of residence to Rochester, New York could be authorized under the terms of his present contract. The answer is in the affirmative. The language of the travel paragraph is sufficiently broad to cover such a mode of travel subject to the following conditions:

25X1

(a) That charter air travel between the proposed points is the only means of air travel available, is operationally essential and, commensurate with the time limitations of  services, is advisable.

25X1

(b) The prior approval of a senior responsible officer of your office which will, in effect, certify to (a) above.
